

The FCC, Michael Powell in particular, has ignored the effects BOPL will have on radio frequencies, has allowed cable free reign without competition as was imposed on the telephone companies. As retired military and a registered republican, I will vote democrat for once in my life to send a signal that I am tired of a government that is decided by a few.

Jim Garrett